Profile Summary

Currently working as a passionate Coding Instructor at Codingal Technologies Pvt. Ltd. Self-taught web developer with four years of front-end experience and ten months of internship at NIELIT Imphal (under MeitY), where I taught web technologies, Python, and C++. I know how to use the MERN Stack and how to make websites the old-fashioned way with HTML, CSS, JavaScript, PHP, and MySQL. Finished a number of projects, such as e-commerce sites, portfolio platforms, and a system for booking buses. Loves clean code, responsive design, and learning new things all the time in modern web frameworks.
